
Expansion of Trusts and Estates Section with the Addition of William H. Davis

Trainor Fairbrook is pleased to announce the expansion of our Trusts and Estates Section with the addition of William (Bill) Davis. The addition of Mr. Davis enhances the Trusts and Estates Section to include trust administration, trusts and estates litigation in addition to our tax and estate planning.

Mr. Davis has been a member of the firm since 1986 and has over 29 years of complex business litigation experience. As a trusted legal advisor, he has assisted many clients with business succession planning, strategic business counseling and trust administration. He advises clients on their estate and tax planning, including trusts, wills, durable powers of attorney and advance health care directives. He will also provide counsel to trustees and executors regarding their responsibilities as fiduciaries to streamline the administration process and avoid unnecessary fees and costs. His trusts and estates litigation practice involves trust disputes, probate litigation, breach of fiduciary duty claims, business and asset valuation disputes, undue influence claims and trust formation proceedings. Mr. Davis also acts as a mediator or arbitrator in trust administration and trust litigation matters.

Mr. Davis earned his law degree from the University of the Pacific, McGeorge School of Law and his Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Oregon. Mr. Davis is a member of the State Bar of California, Trusts and Estates Section and the Sacramento County Bar Association, Probate and Estate Planning Section. He also serves as a Pro Tem judge for Sacramento and Placer County Superior Courts.
